

Scp 7378

Class: Euclid

Class updated: [REDACTED O5 CLEARANCE REQUIRED]

Abilities updated [REDACTED O5 CLEARANCE REQUIRED]

Scp 7378 MUST be kept in a standard room 8 by 8 room and is not to be opened

Scp 7378 is a standard evidence case kept in a detective office and is full of a large selection of case files, whenever they are shown to a human being it will show either a petty crime that affected them in a negative way or a lethal murder suicide or terrorist attack, the scp used to be a single case file but after the ladder of a explosion everyone who died of the accident had a file added to the box, as of now there are 16 instances of scp 7378, whenever seen the person will become obsessed take more risks and become nearly invincible to normally lethal things, however bullets can still kill the subject, when a d-class was shown they went med claiming to need to get to London and broke out of containment killing 4 other d-class and 2 guards nearly releasing scp 682 but was soon terminated.

The original case was found on a dead officer who had 260 stab wounds alone to the head it is unknown how but while on watch nearly a 200 people walked past not noticing the deceased man, even one man stepping on the corpse.

Facts about scp 7378 like time of discovery and what is originally contained is very classified as just knowing it can lead into a psychotic episode.